

Welcome to your career in the Entertainment and Events sector!

Use this map to visualise where a career in Entertainment and Events could take you.

People working in events and entertainment need to be resourceful, independent and original. You can work your way up within one of the four main practice areas, or move between the areas.

Our work-based programmes will help you fill in knowledge gaps and get recognised for your skills, all through hands-on, practical learning.

